We have a large quantity of old newspapers, suitable for wrapping paper, which we will dispose of at 40 cts. per hundred.

The telegraph line is still unrepaired, and consequently we are without dispatches. We loarn that the wires are being repaired as fast as their protection can be secured:

Earl Russian has addressed a letter to Mr. Sawann, assuring him that Her Majesty's Government have nothing more at heart than to see a speedy termination of our difficulties. He professes importial neutrality.

SELECT SCHOOL .- See the Advertisement of Mile Tourer in another column. Those having daughters to educate would do well to patronize her, as, from her the enlistment roll, and publicly pledged Eng experience, she is amply qualified to their "lives, fortunes, and sacred honor superintend the education of young la-

We are pleased to learn that Mr. J. LEE ABLE has effected an arrangement by which our city will again be placed in communication with Louisville. It is his intention to run an accommodation line of Coaches between this place and Franklin, Ky., commencing this evening. This will be continued until the Louisville and Nashville Railroad is placed in thorough repair. The accommodation will leave this city every evening at six o'clock, and arrive in Franklin at six o'clock next morning; also leave Franklin at 6 P. M., and arrive here at 6 A. M. He has fine horses and good coaches, and the traveling public can now be accomanodated with speedy, safe and comfortable transportation.

THEATRE.-To-night should be looked upon as a grand gala night by our citizens, for it gives them an opportunity they don't have often, that is, of displaying in a suitable manner, their appreciation of a most excellent artists and a deserving lady. "HATTIE BERNARD" presents her name to-night for a Benefit, and we trust our citizens will take a proper advantage of the occasion, and fill the house. By so doing, they will but do justice to the lady and themselves. Independently of the lady's personal claims, the bill itself is of a superior order. We are to have the grand romantic French drama called, "Satan in Paris," and we are sure HATTIE will give us a capital impersonation of his Underground Majesty. Lieut. Oscan Karss, who created a furore on Wednesday night, with his inimitable fingering of the piccolo, has, like a gallant young gentleman, vol-unteered his services, and will give us get through my studies as well and as quickly as possible." In this way he went on for a long time. When at last in the Dark" will conclude the performance. The bill includes the whole of the company in the cast, and we are sure every one who goes will leave the house delighted. Go everybody and judge for yourself.

General Morgan's Situation. A gentleman, who left Cumberland Gap on the 19th inst., has furnished the Cincinnati Cammercial the following statement:

On the morning of Sunday, the 17th inst, the enemy made a demonstration in force in front of our position. At the same time a regiment of rebel cavalry crossed the Cumberland Mountains at Big Creek Gap, thirty miles west of Cumberland Gap, and attacked Capt. Martin. in command of ninety of Mundy's Kentucky Cavalry, and pursued him to Wil-liamsburg. On Monday they continued the pursuit and occupied Barboursville. Capt. Martin reached Cumberland Gap on Monday evening with a part of his command. Only one was known to have been killed, but some were captured. On Sunday morning eight regiments of rebel infantry crossed the mountains at Wilson's Gap, twenty miles west of Cumberland Gap, and on Tuesday morning they occupied Flat Lick, Kentucky, On Sun day morning, when a portion of the 5th East Tennessee regiment, under Colonel Honk, was attacked at London, Colonel Garrard's 3rd Kentucky regiment, together with two companies of the 49th Indians, was at Comberland Ford and at Barboursville, with the exception of two companies, viz.: Captains Merritt's and Lear's, which were on their way to London, guarding some prisoners. These prisoners were sent back to Barbours-ville from Laurel Bridge, six miles south of London. These two companies were attacked at Laurel Bridge by some of Scott's cavalry. They repulsed the enemy. This is the last that was heard of these two companies.
On the same day Gen. Morgan ordered

Col. Garrard to "double-quick" it back to the Gap. Gol. G. did not obey the order, but moving back slowly he brought in safely all the wagons from the road, numbering about one hundred and seventy-five. Col. Garrard reached the foot of the mountain at the Gap on Monday evening with his own regiment, with the exception of the two companies named above, and also brought in the two com-panies of the 49th Indiana.

THE MORGAN HAID .- We learn by letter from a good source in Glagow that a company of fifty of Morgan's men visited the town of Scottsville, Allen county, on Monday, making several arrests and carrying off a large quantity of goods from the stores of Brown & Carpenter, Wood-stock & Co., and J. W. Heeter. They reported in the afternoon, before leaving, that the whole force would return that night. Morgan is at Hartsville with his entire force, amounting to 2,000 men. Recruits for him are arriving constantly. Gen. R. W. Johnson was paroled for forty days to effect an exchange. may be expected in this city soon. There was great excitement at Glasgow, and were no troops nearer that place than Munfordville,-Lou. Journal.

The 93d Ohio infantry, Col. Chas. Auderson, are under marching orders for John Muhray, 1st Lieut. & Adjutant, street (opposite Sewance House) Kentucky.

THE PERSONAL PROPERTY AND PERSONS

A Theilling Scene.

The Springfield Republican, in its account of war meetings in the western part of Massachusetts, describes the following interesting and touching scene:

One of the most touching, tender and

One of the most touching, tender and overflowing war meetings of all this region was held last Monday evening in West Springfield, at the First Congregational Church. The people over there are feeling deeply, for about forty of their sons, brothers, fathers, and husbands, belong to the glorious Tenth and Twenty-seventh Massachusetts Regiments, while others are serving their country among companies from New York and Connecticut As previously announced, Rev. Roswell Foster, of Chicopee Falls, made the principal speech, exhorting, by historical allusions, the ladies to higher patriotism in giving up their husbands, brothers, and

After him came words of weight and power from the clergy of the place. All did well, but the crowning glery of the occusion was the simple, natural eloquence of four heroic young men, all beads of families, and fathers of children-men of strength, stamins, and in-fluence, who backed their advice by that most conclusive of all arguments, consistent action. Publicly they subscribed The first man to enroll himself that evening was a householder and practical farmer, one of the selectmen of the town, and a church member of twenty-three years standing. He spoke feelingly and pointedly, and in alluding to his official honors, his church connections, his family ties, his love of home, and the loss of a darling child, he swayed the auditory as the storm cloud does the forest. Almost every eye was suffused with tears, and every heart stirred to its inmost depth, The spectacle was as thrilling and sublime as unexpected. The next day the quota of twenty-six was nearly filled, and yesterday morning this brave patriotic band left home amid the blessings and prayers of friends, for camp at Wor-cester. Nearly all are men of family some of wealth and farms. They will be missed at home, in the community, in the church and Sabbath school. They are mostly sterling men, loyal every inch true as steel, and sure to make their mark on the foe. It will be a rare honor and privilege to serve in such a company and with such men, for rarely have men made greater sacrifices of social ties, comforts and property. Rarely have men gone to the defence of their country in its dark-est hour of peril, sundering so many cords of affection. We shall watch the movement of these volunteers with interest, for some of them are the best of missionaries. They will have an influence abroad as they have had at home. God bless these noble men and cover their heads in the day of battle.

"And Then." Many years ago there was a good man at one of the Italian Universities. One day a young man ran up to him with a face beausing with joy, and said that his greatest wish was now fulfilled, his parents having just given him per-mission to study law. "So now I am come," he added, "to the law school of the University, on account of its great fame; and I mean to spare no pains to another taste of his quality. "A Kiss he came to a stop, the good man, who tening with patience, said, Well, and when you have got through your course of studies, what do you mean to do then?"

Then I shall take my Doctor's degree," said the young man.
"And then?" added St. Filippo Neri

"And then," continued the youth, " shall have a number of difficult cases to manage, and I shall catch people's notice by my cloquence, my zeal, my learning, my acuteness, and gain a great reputa-

"And then ?" repeated the holy man, "And then," replied the youth,-"why hen there cannot be a question, I shall se promoted to some high office or other; esides, I shall make money and grow

"And then?" repeated St. Filippo.
"And then," added the young lawyer,
"then I shall live comfortably and honorably in wealth and dignity, and shall be able to look forward to a happy

"Oh! was not all this to look at things But the holy man had not done. Again he asked, "And then?"

"And then," said the youth, with a faltering voice,—"and then, and then shall die

Here St. Filippo again lifted up his voice and solemnly said, "And then?" "This last "and then" was brought home by God's spirit to the young man's heart. From that time he ceased to look at things seen. He began to feel the power of things unseen;

Thirteen hundred rebel prisoners left Camp Morton, Indianapolis, for home on Saturday, eight hundred on Sunday, and all the rest were to leave yesterday. But where are Pope's officers who were captured by the rebels at Cedar Mountain? Have any of them been discharged from their solitary confinement at Richmond ? Why should we give up all our Confederate prisoners when the Confederate Government keeps a portion of the very best of ours in solitary imprisonment and announces its determination to keep them thus till the end of the war upon a diet of bread and water ?- Low. Journal.

Gallant Fight at Fort Donelson Intelligence from the South!

NEW YORK, Aug. 26 .- A Times cor respondent states that the portion of Mc-Clellan's army which embarked at York-town has already arrived at Alexandria. The corps under the command of General Franklin, which embarked at Fortresa Monroe on Friday, arrived at Alexandria to-day. It is also reported that another corps will come to the same place tomorrow. In fact, appearances indicate that the entire army of the Potomac, excepting Gen. Porter's corps, which went to Fredericksburg · last week, will make Camp California, the old camping ground situated about one and a half miles from Alexandria, a temporary rendervous. It is the spinion that the troops now at Alexandria will, in the course of a day or two, proceed to join Pope's army. am informed that Kearney's Division which arrived at Alexandria about the middle of last week, took part in an engagement which occurred near Warren ton yesterday.

The new regiments are daily pouring into Alexandria, and every day they are sent forward to join the army. The Times' Washington dispatch says that Acting Adjutant Murdock, of the 66th Onio, committed suicide last nigh

by blowing his brains out with a pistol

He was ill with fever, but was not though to be delirious till the fatal deed was

The Herald's Warrenton Junction correspondent says military critics profess to believe our forced advances to the Rapidan were prematurely made. Jack-son disturbed our figures somewhat at Cedar Mountain and possibly deranged our calculations. As a consequence, h and his co-adjutors assail us now within thirty miles of Manassas, and with th largest army the rebels have ever rallied East or West. We all look hopefully for the coming of McClellan. Burnside's troops are here. If ever the new levies were needed it is at this time.

Gen. Pope is still held to be equal t any emergency. The crippled but in domitable Banks is still with his com mand; and M'Dowel has an opportunity t wipe away a bloody recollection, withi cannon shot of Bull Run, for he is activ and everywhere present.

The Rappahannock correspondent of the Tribune says: The greatest crisis of the war occurred between, Thursday morning and Saturday night. It ha passed and we are safe; our army is safe the nation is safe; for Pope's artillery now guarding the line of the Rappahar nock, and Fitz John Porter, with a verheavy force, joined Pope on Friday evening, and a host of regiments have joine him now by way of Alexandria. Not look for the grand movement of the wa within 30 days. Do not forget tha Burnside has massed a large army Fredericksburg, and Pope is nearly quite as strong as Lee or Jackson, an McClellan is freed from the net which held him in its meshes on the Peninsul Some stir was caused in camp and thousand times more in Washington, I find, by a sudden raid of 250 guerillas upon Catlett's Station, under cover of the night. They dashed in upon a very small collection of men and wagons, and stampeding a lof of sutlers and servants and teamsters, burned seven wagons, ran off a number of horses and took about 100 prisoners. The most serious part of the business is, they took Gen-Pope's personal baggage and money and all his official papers, correspondence, &c, which happened to be in one of the wagons which had been sent to the rear in the attack at Catlett's Station. Twenty supply trains were destroyed or their contents injured by the rebels. Many vagons were too wet to burn.

CINCINNATI, August 26 .- A special to the Commercial from the Chaplain of the 71st Ohio, dated Fort Donelson 25th, says the rebels under Woodward, the same that took Clarksville, made an attack on the fort, but were repulsed with the loss of thirty killed and wounded. Woodward's horse was killed under him, and his saddle and pistols are now in our possession. The rebels sent a flag of truce previous to the attack, demanding our surrender. The question was put to the officers-every man voted no. The enemy's force consisted of 450 infantry, 330 cavalry and two field pieces. The fort is under command of Major Vest, with four companies of the 71st Ohio, Col. Rodney Mason's regiment. The Commercial's Lexington despatch says there is no occasion for alarm about General Morgan's position. A courier just arrived reports no fear of starvation. The rebels have 15,000 in his front, and 30,000 in the rear, commanded by Bragg, Floyd, and Kirby Smith.

Cassins M. Clay left to-day with his brigade. Gen. Nelson has relieved Lew Wallace, and will take the field. Col. Charles Anderson, of the 93d Ohio, is appointed commander of this post. The negro brigade to repair roads leaves tomorrow. Gen. James S. Jackson, late Congressman from the Second District, is here, and will take the field immediately.
